LINCOLN PILGRIMAGE:

Division Commanders and District Commanders are eligible.

Based upon the first membership report in January after the first target date from National, the following Commanders will receive the caravan jacket, along with an invitation to lunch with our SAL National Commander, a ticket to the Abraham Lincoln Museum, and breakfast the following morning with the President of the American Legion Auxiliary as the keynote speaker. This breakfast is also a recap of the awards presented the previous day, along with the photo of you taken with National leadership will be officially presented. The luncheon with the American Legion National Commander as the keynote is optional to you at your expense.

Winning Division Commanders must be certified by Winter DEC, have all of their District's certified by that date, and have representation of either the Commander or Senior Vice Commander at both the Fall and Winter DEC.

Winning District Commanders must be certified by the Winter DEC and have all of their Squadrons certified by the same date. Representation of either the Commander or Senior Vice Commander at both the Fall and Winter DEC.

All requirements must be met to be eligible. Winning Commanders must be present at Lincoln Pilgrimage Membership Awards ceremony to receive their jackets and breakfast ticket. Lunch with the National Commander will be before the Membership Awards ceremony, with a tour of the Museum held before lunch.
